Re: United States v. Leonardo Cruz-Marcelino
08 Cr. 151 (DLC)

Hon. Judge Cote:

I write, in the above captioned case, to request an extension of the filing deadline for Mr. Cruz-Marcelino's sentencing submission. Sentence is set for July 11, 2008, and we request that the filing deadline of Friday, June 20th, be extended to Tuesday, June 24th.

I make this request of the Court because, despite timely filing of the necessary release forms, I have not yet received Mr. Cruz-Marcelino's medical records from the Metropolitan Detention Center. MDC is overloaded with requests but have assured me that these records will arrive by Monday. The extension of the filing deadline would not change the sentence date, and would ensure that the Court has a full and complete picture of all factors related to Mr. Cruz-Marcelino's sentencing.

I have spoken with Glen Kopp, the Assistant U.S. Attorney in this case, who similarly requests that his papers be due the following Tuesday, July 1st. Again it will not warrant re-scheduling the sentence date.

Granted.

Respectfully submitted,
